ACTION '76 WORKSHOP

A NON-PARTISAN OBJECTIVE STUDY OF WOMEN'S LEGAL RIGHTS

Shall we abolish dower and curtesy?

Can we hold separate real estate?

These questions are now being debated in Committee and will be voted on by the 1977 Virginia General Assembly. House Bill 5 and Bill 555 concern all Virginians, and if passed, will bring far-reaching changes in inheritance and property rights.

Can we afford not to debate them?

Come join our panel of experts in questions and answers on these bills and other legal matters, such as banking, divorce, adoption, insurance and real estate.
