

"Republican Affairs,"
Gentle, Va.
Nov. 27, 1860.

My dear Sir,

Your letter is to hand, in reply to mine, & its contents considered.

I am perfectly sure that the appointment of Mr. - Lodiopero, would give as much satisfaction as that of Mr. Lee. I know that it would be more agreeable to the Proprietors, tho' neither ~~of them~~ <sup>of them</sup> is the choice of the Proprietors. I also know that both Mr. J. & myself have been as fast friends of yours, & have perhaps done as much for you, as Mr. Lee.

Those therefore, that you will give the appointment to Mr. J. especially, as Mr. L. has an appointment already in Plausin,

I am informed for conser-tion of the Southern Whigs, but it is too late. The Union is gone, & no convention, in my opinion can save it. The disease is too radical to admit of cure. Be strong in your views to the Legislature. It is the only cordwainly will win now.

Very truly

Yours friend

R. H. Glass

To His Excellency
Gov. Letcher Esq.
