

TRANSCRIPTION

C.T. Lucy Interviewed Freeman Gosden, June 21, 1950

- Lucy: Gentlemen, we have someone in the studio tonight, familiar to all of us. And before telling you his name I'm going to ask him to say a few words to you.
- Gosden: Well, I don' know 'xactly what to say it to them. All I'm gonna say is how ya doin' ladies and gentlemen; it sho' is nice to be here in Richmond again.
- Lucy: Well you're exactly right; it's none other than Amos of Amos and Andy, known in real life as Freeman Gosden, who is in Richmond in search of a real Kingfish for his television program. More about that a little later. Now um, Freeman, in your natural voice, uh how about answering a few questions for me?
- Gosden: Well if you want me to, uh, Mr. Lucy, I'll slide outta the King, uh, the the Amos stuff here and get right down to my natural voice, now anything you wanna ask me, uh C.T., I'll be glad to answer.
- Lucy: Well, I'd like to say first that, uh, we're delighted to have you with us in Richmond, and personally at WRVA again. I'm sure your friends in the old gang hereabouts are...

---

Citation: Freeman Gosden Interview, 21 June 1950 (WRVA – 151), WRVA Radio Collection, Accession 38210, Library of Virginia, Richmond, Virginia.